

DID YOU KNOW YOU CAN WORK AND ALSO RECEIVE HOME AND COMMUNITY-BASED WAIVER SERVICES?

IF YOU ARE

Age 21 Years and Older – You may work and earn additional money while enrolled in one of the following waivers:

- iBudget
- Long-Term Care
- Familial Dysautonomia

THERE ARE

Limits on the amount of money you can make:

- Individual – cannot make more than $4,306 monthly (2020 limit)
- Couple – cannot make more than $8,612 monthly (2020 limit)

AND

Limits on the amount of assets you can have:

- Individual – cannot have assets that total more than $13,000
- Couple – cannot have assets that total more than $24,000

ADDITIONALLY

You may have a retirement account recognized by the Internal Revenue Service.

If you are enrolled in one of the included waivers and receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI), please report changes in employment and/or increased earnings to the Social Security Administration (SSA) through the standard reporting process. You may call the SSA at (800) 772-1213 or visit www.ssa.gov.

If you are enrolled in one of the included waivers and do not receive SSI, please report changes in employment and/or increased earnings to the Department of Children and Families (DCF) through the standard reporting process. You may call DCF at (850) 300-4323 or visit www.myflorida.com/accessflorida/.

If you are applying for coverage under one of the included waivers, apply online at <https://www.myflorida.com/accessflorida/>. Please be sure to indicate that you are interested in applying for services under a waiver program. There is no special application for coverage under Working People with Disabilities.

